ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

Covering approximately 150 acres, the Kelmscott Farm offers a pastoral setting within close proximity to the amenities of Camden and Belfast on Penobscot Bay. Surrounded by rolling hills with views of Ducktrap Mountain, the farm features open pastures, stone walls, woods, expertly designed gardens, and frontage on Pitcher Pond. The farm's buildings include a historic main house (with attached barn) that has been completely renovated and expanded. Presiding over open fields, the light-filled residence is oriented to offer lovely views of the surrounding hills. The property also includes two additional barns and a three-story bunkhouse with offices and living quarters.
